Good Morning Mr. McAtee,

I hope all is well with your family.

We would like a phone call to discuss this.

We have talked with [REDACTED] about this incident and the topics you asked families to address with their children.

Thank you.

Good afternoon,
I apologize for my delay in reaching out but I had a family emergency.

On Friday morning several students from [REDACTED] bus came to me to share that [REDACTED] has been using inappropriate language on the bus. When I spoke with [REDACTED] he admitted to using both the f-word and the n-word on the bus.

Due to the language, I am assigning an in-school suspension for tomorrow. We will have a substitute teacher work with [REDACTED] so he will not miss out on my instruction but he will not be with his classmates.

If you would like to discuss this, please let me know and I will give you a call tomorrow.
