Thank you and yes, we can change the seats.

██████████ is in the SI room, I will ask Elizabeth to start the conversations before I get involved to deal with the issues.

Good morning.

After our SEL lesson today, one of my girls came to me with news of an incident on bus 5. She sits with a child by the name ██████████ (not sure of the spelling). It was reported ██████████ has said to my student, "I'm glad I am not white like you." and called her the 'N' word. Also, she has been hitting/punching her while making fun of her. Is there any way to speak to ██████████ and change my student's seat?

My student is ██████████
