Standards for Competent and Ethical Performance of Oregon Educators

[Application of Rules

1. Oregon Administrative Rules were adopted by the Teacher Standards and Practices Commission (TSPC) in accordance with Oregon Revised Statutes (ORS).
2. Oregon Administrative Rules (OAR) may be used as criteria by the TSPC in matters pertaining to the revocation or suspension of licenses issued by TSPC under Oregon law or the discipline of any license holder or any person who has held a license at any time within five years prior to issuance of the notice of charges under ORS.
3. The TSPC determines whether an educator’s performance is ethical or competent in light of all the facts and circumstances surrounding the educator’s performance as a whole.
4. The TSPC will promptly investigate complaints:
  - a. The TSPC may at its discretion defer action to charge an educator against whom a complaint has been filed under law when the investigation report indicates that disciplinary action against the educator is pending at the local district level or when criminal charges are pending or are likely to be filed against the educator. In considering whether to defer action to charge an educator, the TSPC shall consider all relevant circumstances including the nature and seriousness of the allegations and whether the educator is currently employed as a teacher or school administrator;
  - b. The executive secretary shall regularly inform the TSPC of the status of any complaints on which the TSPC has deferred action.]

Definitions

The following definitions apply to Oregon Administrative Rules unless otherwise indicated by context:

3. Willingness to be flexible in cooperatively working with others; and
4. Skill in reconciling conflict.

The Ethical Educator

The ethical educator is a person who accepts the requirements of membership in the teaching profession and acts at all times in ethical ways. In so doing the ethical educator considers the needs of the students, the district and the profession.

The ethical educator, in fulfilling obligations to the student, will:

1. Keep the confidence entrusted in the profession as it relates to confidential information concerning a student and the student's family;
2. Refrain from exploiting professional relationships with any student for personal gain or in support of persons or issues; and
3. Maintain an appropriate professional student-educator relationship by:
  - a. Not demonstrating or expressing professionally inappropriate interest in a student's personal life;
  - b. Not accepting or giving or exchanging romantic or overly personal gifts or notes with a student;
  - c. Reporting to the educator's supervisor if the educator has reason to believe a student is or may be becoming romantically attached to the educator; and
  - d. Honoring appropriate adult boundaries with students in conduct and conversations at all times.

The ethical educator, in fulfilling obligations to the district, will:

1. Apply for, accept, offer or assign a position of responsibility only on the basis of professional qualifications and will adhere to the conditions of a contract or the terms of the appointment;

2. Conduct professional business, including grievances, through established lawful and reasonable procedures;
3. Strive for continued improvement and professional growth;
4. Accept no gratuities or gifts of significance that could influence judgment in the exercise of professional duties; and
5. Not use the district's or school's name, property or resources for noneducational benefit without approval of the educator's supervisor or the appointing authority.

The ethical educator, in fulfilling obligations to the profession, will:

1. Maintain the dignity of the profession by respecting and obeying the law, exemplifying personal integrity and honesty;
2. Extend equal treatment to all members of the profession in the exercise of their professional rights and responsibilities;
3. Respond to requests for evaluation of colleagues and to keep such information confidential as appropriate; and
4. Respond to requests from a TSPC representative for information, furnish documents to TSPC, and participate in interviews with a TSPC representative relating to a TSPC investigation, except subject to the exercise of any legal right or privilege.
