

Assistant Principal's Report- February 19, 2025

Below you will find a breakdown of the number of minors and majors given since our last meeting. The numbers still show missing homework as the main contributor of minors. There will be a handbook committee meeting next week as the committee will get proposals from their teams with updates to come. The boys basketball season has come to a close and the volleyball seasons are getting closer to post-season play. The SRC conference tournament begins on February 22nd. The Scholastic Bowl team is off to a great start to their season with a 3-0 record during the first week of matches. The SRC administrative meeting will be held on Tuesday the 18th and I will update with any important discussion. If you have any questions, feel free to reach out.
