c. Appoint School Board AttorneyBackground:

Although not required by law, yet cited in Board Policy 210.1, the annual meeting is an appropriate time to reappoint the Board's legal counsel.

I recommend we continue working with the Ahlers firm in Des Moines. Please keep in mind, with a large law firm like Ahlers Law, a school board has access to a number of attorneys that may specialize in various fields, e.g., personnel, bargaining, bonding, etc.

After the last two years of working with Ahlers Law, I recommend continuing to work directly with Ann Smisek.

Ms. Smisek earned her J.D. (with Distinction) from the University of Iowa in 2007. She was admitted to the Iowa Bar that same year.

Ann Smisek joined the Ahlers firm in 2014 and works in the firm's Government Law and Education Law Practice Areas. Ann counsels clients on various personnel matters regarding hiring, disciplining, and terminating employees, as well as how to conduct workplace investigations. She advises on compliance with applicable state and federal regulations, and reviews handbooks to provide recommendations on legal compliance and best practices. Ann also advises clients on labor issues, representing employers in collective bargaining agreement negotiations, in cases before the Public Employment Relations Board, and in grievance arbitrations.

Prior to Ahlers & Cooney, she served as an Administrative Law Judge for the Iowa Public Employment Relations Board (IPERB). She conducted prehearing conferences and presided at contested case hearings concerning labor and employment disputes. She performed legal research and issued proposed rulings on pre-hearing motions and on the merits of cases. She handled administrative appeals before the district court, Iowa Court of Appeals and Iowa Supreme Court regarding negotiability disputes. She also acted as a mediator to help settle cases and assist in the negotiation of collective bargaining agreements.

Prior to the IPERB and upon graduation from law school, she worked 3-1/2 years as a Judicial Law Clerk for former Chief Judge Rosemary Shaw Sackett at the Iowa Court of Appeals. Before law school, Ann started her career in scientific publishing where she oversaw and managed the editorial review and publication process of academic medical research articles. Ann grew up in Mitchellville, Iowa and while at the University of Iowa College of Law, served on the Iowa Law Review.

Recommended Action:

I recommend the board move to approve Ann Smisek of Ahlers Law as its legal counsel.

d. Appoint Representative to the IASB Delegate AssemblyBackground:

The IASB Delegate Assembly convenes annually for three important roles:

1. Annual Meeting
2. Set the Legislative Platform
3. Convene the nominating caucuses to select candidates for the IASB Board of Directors in selected regions.

IASB bylaws give each member school board a delegate who casts the district's votes on issues before the Delegate Assembly. School board members provide input on IASB's legislative platform and your priorities help influence legislators and the governor. By participating in this debate process, school, AEA and community college boards contribute to IASB's legislative program and ultimately the unified legislative interests of all Iowa school boards.

The Delegate Assembly and Annual Meeting will be held Tuesday, November 17. Please take time at your next board meeting to select a delegate, who must be a member of a board in good membership standing of the Iowa Association of School Boards. (A superintendent cannot be a delegate.)

Registration is open.

Time: ~~9 a.m. — noon or upon completion. If we do not finish by noon, we will break for lunch and reconvene after lunch.~~

Location: ~~Grand Ballroom, 4th Floor, Iowa Events Center~~

Note for Registering for Afternoon Events:

~~Delegates interested in attending an afternoon IASB pre-Convention workshop are advised to pre-register for the event to guarantee a seat. If the Delegate Assembly deliberation extends after lunch, you will not be invoiced for afternoon workshop registration fees.~~

The IASB Delegate Assembly will be held virtually as a distance event—this year only—on Tuesday, November 17, from 5:45 P.M. until adjournment.

Recommended Action:

We are not required under the terms of our membership in IASB to have a delegate at the assembly; however, this is our opportunity to have a voice in the governance of the IASB organization and in state-wide policy.
