RE: Interagency Agreement with Fox Valley Special Recreation Association

Fox Valley Special Recreation Association has agreed to partner with Mid-Valley to provide after-school programming for students in grades K-6 who attend the New Directions Program at Mades-Johnstone Center. If there are enough parent registrations, the program will begin on January 5, 2015. If there are not enough registrations, we may be opening this opportunity to other Mid-Valley students who attend St. Charles Schools. If so, the district would provide transportation to MJC and the parents would pick their children up at MJC.

This agreement replaces the earlier agreement with the St. Charles Park District that declined to provide the after-school programming.
