In such event, the collective bargaining agreement will govern and employees must utilize the negotiated grievance procedures to challenge any discipline. When initiating disciplinary action as provided for above, the employee shall be provided the following:

1. A pre-disciplinary meeting at which the employee shall be given notice of the proposed disciplinary action and a reasonable opportunity to respond. Unless circumstances dictate otherwise, the Superintendent or designee shall provide notice of the proposed disciplinary action and schedule a meeting for a reasonable period of time after the delivery of the notice to allow the employee time to prepare a response.

An employee may, within five calendar days after the imposition of the disciplinary action, appeal the disciplinary decision to the Board submitting his/her appeal for a hearing in writing to the Superintendent or designee. The appeal must state the ground(s) for the appeal.

If the employee fails to appeal within the time specified in this policy, the employee shall have waived his/her right to appeal.

The employee shall be informed in writing of the time and place of the meeting at which the Board will hold a hearing . After holding an evidentiary hearing, the Board may affirm, modify or revoke the disciplinary action. The decision of the Board is final subject to appeal to Superior Court as and to the extent provided for in the Alaska Rules of Appellate Procedure.
