

About the Apprenticeship Program

STRUCTURED WORK-BASED PROGRAM

CAREER FOCUSED INCORPORATING:

- INDUSTRY STANDARDS
 - PERFORMANCE BASED ASSESSMENT
 - JOB SITE MENTORSHIP
-

- GOAL: BRIDGE CLASSROOM LEARNING WITH PRACTICAL TRADE EXPERIENCE TO HELP STUDENT ACQUIRE ESSENTIAL SKILLS AND COMPETENCIES.

Higher education
partners

Lewis and Clark State
College

CNA certification

College of Western
Idaho

Welding, plumbing,
and HVAC internship
hours

Where it all began...

- Rotary grant in Spring of 2024
- Successes:
 - 5 students became Certified Nursing Assistants
 - Over half are currently pursuing their nursing degrees
 - 1 student continues to work for Point S
 - 1 student will graduate from the LCSC welding program and return to the area

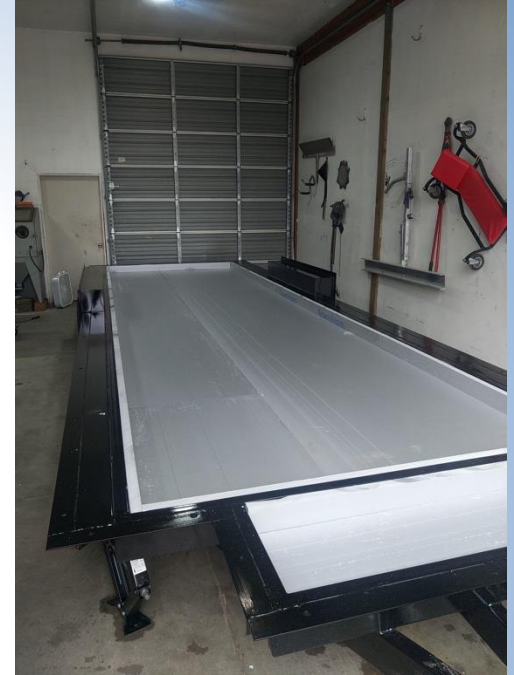

Current enrollment in MDCAP

- 13 students – up from 7
 - NEW 2025! 3 Contracting trades (Tiny Home Project) – construction, electrical, plumbing
 - New 2025! 1 Veterinarian technician
 - New 2025! 4 Medical Assistants
 - 4 Certified Nursing Assistants
 - 1 EMT

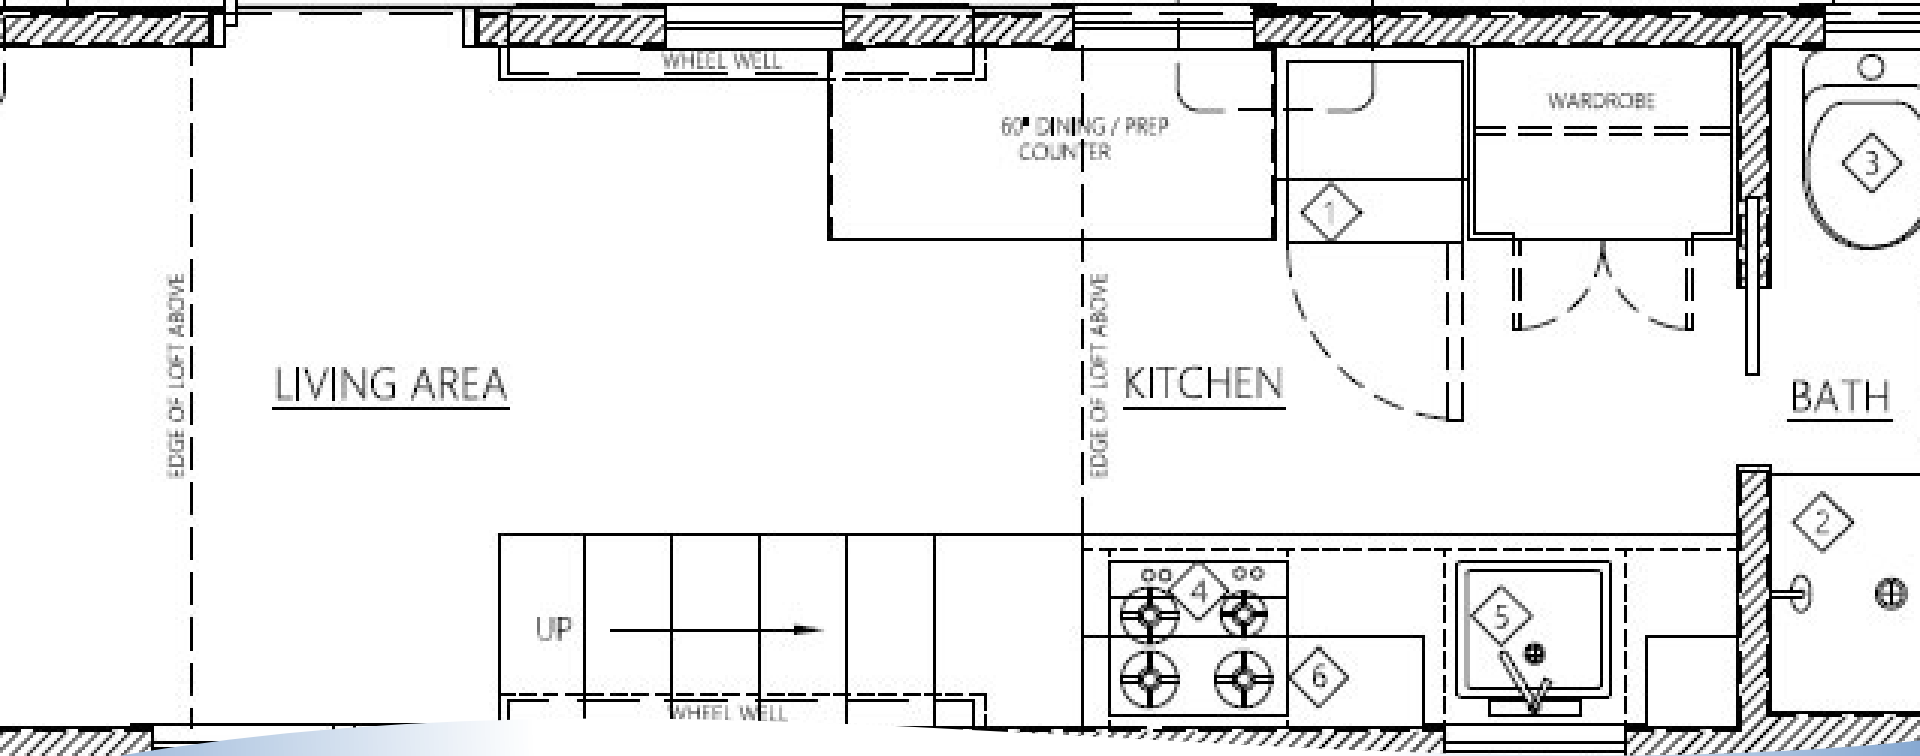

Tiny Home Project

The Tiny Home Project: Hikari Box Model

- Hikari Box Tiny House by ShelterWise.
- Compact, efficient 184 sq. ft. layout with large windows and natural light.
- Focused on sustainable design and craftsmanship.
- Combines solar-ready power systems and energy-efficient construction.

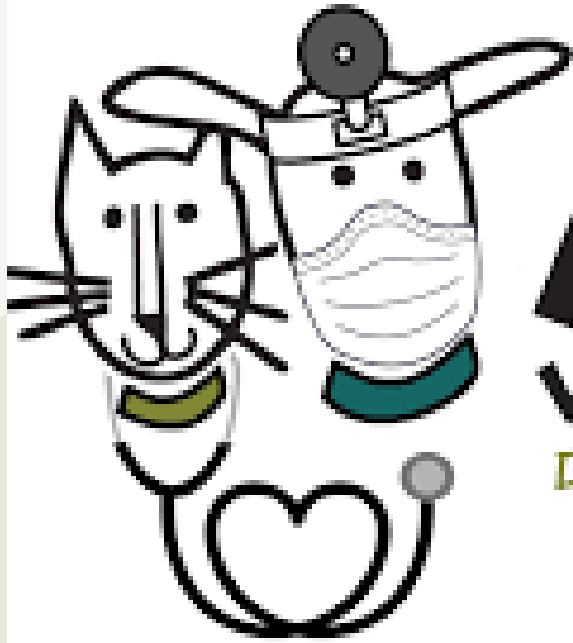

Learning from the Ground Up

- Students complete every stage of the build:
 - Wall framing and sheathing
 - Roofing, insulation, and siding
 - Finish carpentry and paint
- Develops problem-solving and project sequencing skills.

Construction Trades

- Enrolled in CWI Electrical Apprenticeship course through Workforce training
- Transition to any area of the construction trades
 - Students will not only work with the general, who is mentoring the project, but also subspecialty contractors.
 - Plumbing
 - Electrical

MCPAWS

VETERINARY HOSPITAL

Dedicated to a Humane Community

Animal Care
Specialist/Veterinarian •
Technician

- Partnership with McPaws Animal Hospital
- Paid position
- Newly created "Ready to Grow Apprenticeship Pathway" with Idaho Businesses for Education and the Department of Labor
 - $750 for occupational supplies
 - Nationally recognized certification in the field

Animal Care Specialist/Vet Tech

- Didactic learning through online platform
 - Background in both clinical and administrative operations
- On the Job Training
 - Guided by Pathways

Certified Clinical Medical Assistant (CCMA)

Academic training through Lewis and Clark State College.

On the Job Training with St. Lukes Payette Lakes clinic

Upon completion, students will sit for the CCMA national certification exam offered by the National Health Association.

Certified Nursing Assistant

- Established program in 2024
- Four students currently enrolled.
- Partnerships with Lewis and Clark State College, St. Lukes McCall, and McCall Rehabilitation
- Upon completion, students will sit for the national Certified Nursing Assistant exam

Emergency Medical Technician

- Built upon the existing CTE program – Emergency Medical Responder (Pinard)
- Didactic through McCall Donnelly High School
- On the job training at McCall Fire and EMS
- Students will prepare for the national EMT certification exam

