

Board Action Required

No Action Required

Lindsay Ayers, the new Director of Marketing and Business Partnerships, will be addressing the Board to give an update on the Partners in Excellence program. The mission of the Partners in Excellence program is prepare learners for life after graduation through reciprocal partnerships that expose them to career opportunities, industry experts and real-world projects.

In addition to the partner program update, she will also give an overview of fall advertising revenue for the football stadium.