RE: Team Sport Officiating Course - Board Agenda Item

Team Sport Officiating an innovative course is being submitted for your consideration and approval. The Team Sport Officiating course will create opportunities for students to learn the rules and regulations of team sports, developing skills in communication, decision-making, and conflict management needed to officiate team sport competitions. This course will also prepare students and allow them to become certified Texas Association of Sports Officials (TASO).

Your consideration is greatly appreciated. Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact my office.
