Blended Learning Option for All Students, Grades 6-12

Michael P. Flanagan, Superintendent of Public Instruction, has used his authority to waive certain administrative rules to provide schools with flexibility in implementing innovative teaching and learning models. The goal of the Seat Time Waiver Program is moving all students to demonstrated mastery of the Michigan Merit Curriculum and graduating career and college ready by increasing learning options and personal growth opportunities. The program challenges the traditional model of rewarding schools for non-academic measures (i.e., seat time) by providing flexibility to help all students succeed. To date, this flexibility has been provided primarily through online learning models of delivery for the student's entire instructional day and year.

The Superintendent is looking to support districts interested in employing blended models of instruction for all students, Grades 6-12. For the purposes of seat time waivers, blended instruction is the practice of combining frequent face-to-face interaction with online learning to deliver the pupil's instruction. To facilitate this, the Superintendent will waive up to 50% of instructional seat time for 100 % of an applicant district's Grades 6-12 population with an MDE-approved implementation plan.

Example: With an approved plan, an applicant district can provide 549/1,098 hours (50%) of instruction in the building and arrange the remaining 549/1,098 (50%) hours through online learning, experiential, work-based or other means.

To take advantage of this Blended Learning Option, applicant districts must submit a plan and receive approval from MDE prior to the start of the program. The plan must indicate how the district will use the waiver while satisfying the 5-O-B Seat Time Waiver Guidance.
