DATE OF MEETING: MAY 6, 2014

TITLE: Recognition of Arizona Family, Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA) State Winners

BACKGROUND:

Amphitheater District students competed against students from schools across Arizona at the Arizona Family, Career and Community Leaders of America State Conference. The conference was held April 10-12, 2014 in Tucson. There were more than 40 events, including Culinary Knife Skills, Early Childhood Education, Impromptu Speaking, Entrepreneurship, and Nutrition. The mission of FCCLA is to promote personal growth and leadership development through Family and Consumer Sciences Education.

Two students from Canyon del Oro High School who competed in the Early Childhood Event qualified for the National Competition that will be held in San Antonio, Texas in July.
