October Be-Attitude – Be Friendly

Enrollment update – On October 25th our enrollment reached 449

The Elementary PTO held its organizational meeting on October 7. Officers for 2013-2014 are Lynn Kohel, President; Jess Murry, Vice- President; Trisha Falstad, Treasurer and Julie Emerson, Secretary. Discussion focused on planning activities/events for this school year.

In-service topics for October 10 and 11 included:

- Reviewing procedures for evacuation, code yellow and code red plans. We had a code red drill with staff and discussed questions/suggestions.
- Verbal De-escalation and Limit Setting. This was a portion of the Crisis Development Model training that Courtney Knickerbocker presented to the building crisis team members last summer.
- Sue Brooks met with Kindergarten and First Grade teams.
- Teachers had time to work on their student Learning Objectives (SLO).

PALS assessments were completed for Kindergarten during the week of October 14th and in All Aboard Pre-School during the week of October 23rd and 28th.

Vision and Hearing screening was conducted on October 14.

Realtors from Coldwell Bankers recognized second graders for their fire safety posters on October 17th.
