

Board Operating Procedures – Recommended Revision

Page 18:

Current:

The Board President should respond to communication sent to all members of the board and blind copy all board members so that they are informed of the response.

Proposed:

The Board President (or designee) should respond to communication sent to all members of the board and blind copy all board members so that they are informed of the response.