

What our bylaws say about board director vacancies:

online program and one from either the seat-based or online program), and four teachers (two from the seat-based program and two from the online program).

If the first non-elected individual receiving the most votes declines to serve on the Board of Education, the Board Directors shall appoint a member to serve on the Board of Education until the next election. The Board Directors may appoint any eligible person at any time during the term that vacated seat is not filled.

The Board of Education will address the vacancy at every Board of Education meeting the seat remains vacated.

If there is more than one candidate presented at the Board of Education meeting, the Board Directors will vote by ballot for the candidate they choose. Each Board of Education member shall have one vote. In addition, the recorder of the Board of Education shall count and report the results to the Board Chairperson.

If there is a tie, the seat remains vacated until the next Board of Education's meeting. The process is repeated until a candidate fills the vacated seat.

A Director filling a vacancy shall hold office for the remainder of term of the vacant position.

Section 6.9. Resignation and Removal

Directors may resign at any time, effective immediately, or at a specified later date, by giving written notice to the Board of Education Chairperson or the Administrative Assistant of Crosslake Community School. Unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

The Board of Education may remove, for proper cause, any Director or Officer of the Board of Education and fill the vacancy; but such removal must be by a concurrent vote of at least four members at a meeting of whose time, place, and object the charged Director has been duly notified, with the reasons for such proposed removal and after an opportunity to be heard in defense against the removal.

Section 6.10 Filling Vacancies

Unless otherwise provided by Minnesota Statutes Section 317A.227 or Section 6.9, vacancies on the Board of Education caused by death, disqualification, disability, removal, absence of three consecutive designated Board of Education meetings (without substantial reason), or such other cause shall be filled by appointment of a new Director by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining Directors, even if less than a quorum. A Director filling a vacancy shall hold office for the remainder.
