Issue Summary:

To support the Minuaqtuġvik Nunami ("School on the Nuna") initiative, the District is purchasing standardized kits containing essential supplies for setting up temporary outdoor learning spaces.

Background:

The Minuaqtugvik Nunami ("School on the Nuna") initiative provides students with culturally relevant, land-based educational experiences that integrate Iñupiaq knowledge, survival skills, and environmental learning. These hands-on opportunities support academic growth while strengthening students' connections to their heritage and community. To ensure consistency and safety across all participating school sites, the district proposes the procurement of standardized kits containing essential materials for establishing temporary outdoor learning environments.

Each kit will include items such as portable shelters, heating units, instructional tools, classroom seating, and secure storage. These resources will enable schools to implement outdoor learning with efficiency and equity, regardless of location or climate conditions. The purchase aligns with the District's strategic goals by enhancing culturally responsive instruction, supporting staff readiness, and expanding meaningful partnerships with local communities.
