170	It's fine, I'm not the one being bullied but more like friends of mine. In the past I have been around kids that I see now a days, and their honestly sometimes bullies or just jerks. I didn't mean to be disrespectful to any of these kids, but I don't see any time in the further future were I can be friends with those kinds of people who treat me fine because I treat them ok, but like to bully my friends right in front of me, I don't look forward to seeing these people but I have to be there to stop this. Sorry if this is long but I just wanted to point out that even though some students can act like some of the nicest people in the school, we don't always know their life out of school.	3/23/2017 8:39 AM
