PACE Outreach

Fine Point will meet again after this report is submitted to further discuss the marketing plan for the FY 2025/2026 school year.

Enrollment for FY 2025/2026 will open February 1.

In-person quarterly activities continue at each location. The Ugly Sweater skating party for the MATSU office was a huge hit with PACE families. The next staff meeting on January 15 will focus on the quarterly activities for each learning center and will be shared next month.

Each year, we have an art contest. The winners have their pictures published on the cover of the parent handbook. The entries will be judged on January 15.

PACE Staffing

Donna Sheldon, the Anchorage Administrative Assistant, formally announced her resignation on December 16, 2024. Her final day with PACE will be on January 15, 2025. Her vast experience and contributions to the PACE culture and development are appreciated, and she will be missed.

The administrative assistant position is currently open, and is advertised on ATP. It will run through the Anchorage news January 10 - February 9. The position is being advertised for either the Anchorage or the Wasilla locations.

School Improvement

The Quarter 2 School Improvement report was submitted on December 13. Monthly MTSS meetings are occurring to coordinate efforts to support students and families who are identified as struggling.

Testing for MClass (DIBELS) and MAPS will run from January 13-18.
