Dear Olga Garza,

I am writing to present a special donation of $300 to the EHMS Cheer team. This gift carries a deeply personal story of resilience, love, and the enduring kindness of a beautiful soul.

As you already know, on April 22, my daughter, Amber Rey Charles, passed away after a brave and fierce battle against stage 4 cancer. She was only 13 years old. Throughout her short but incredibly impactful life, her single greatest wish was to bring kindness to every human and animal that crossed her path. She lived her 13 years beautifully, leaving behind a legacy of pure compassion.

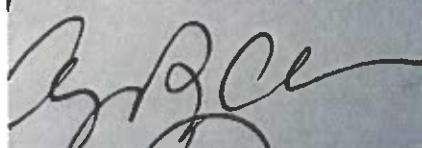

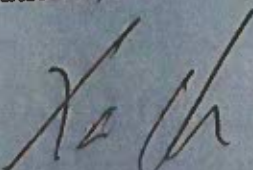

In the wake of our loss, a compassionate physician from here in Laredo, Texas—who wishes to remain strictly anonymous—graciously presented our family with a check for $2,013, a number chosen with immense thoughtfulness to signify the year of our daughter's birth.

This physician entrusted us to divide and direct these funds to places where Amber would have wanted to make a difference. We are choosing to share a portion of this meaningful gift with you because your organization aligns so perfectly with her generous heart and the things she cared about.

We ask that you accept this contribution in her honor and memory, knowing that it stems from the collective love of a grieving family, a compassionate doctor, and a little girl who wanted nothing more than to make the world a kinder place.

Thank you for the vital work you do every day.

With warm regards and gratitude,

Parents of Amber Rey Charles
