Curriculum Supervision

It is the intent of the Board to provide for the ongoing supervision of curriculum. Accordingly, the superintendent shall ensure:

1. ~~The district utilizes a steering committee to act as a clearinghouse for the various programs which effect curriculum;~~
2. The district office contains a curriculum office with leadership being provided for curriculum change;
3. Special curriculum committees are established to carry out the various studies necessary to improve curriculum;
4. Workshops both for curriculum improvement and for teachers' improvement are available;
5. Direct supervisory help is provided to those individuals working on curriculum and to building principals and staffs from the district office;
6. ~~Resource people are provided by purchasing services or by outright hiring, where justified.~~
