

You are invited to the

Free Admission

Bring the family

5th Annual Jim Pepper Native Arts Festival

Saturday, September 30, 11:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m.

Parkrose High School, near the Fine Arts building

The Jim Pepper Native Arts Festival is an all-ages, free-admission, community-building celebration featuring performances by Native American musicians and remembering the legacy of the late, great Kaw/Muskogee Creek musician Jim Pepper (1941-1992), a former Parkrose student who earned international recognition for his original, trailblazing work. Parkrose grad and Oregon Music Hall of Famer Gary Ogan (Cherokee) leads the Flying Eagle Band. There will be a wide variety of Native American artists, performers, jewelers, foods, dancers, unique handcrafted items and more.

www.jimpepperfest.net

music@jimpepperfest.net

Regional Arts &
Culture Council

This event is not sponsored by the Parkrose School District