Update: The 2024-2025 Equity Speaker Series will kick off on August 22nd. This year our theme is “Reimagining Education for All: Pivoting into Transformational Relationships with Ourselves and Our Students.” Our keynote for August and October will be Dr. Shawn Ginwright taking a deeper dive into this subject from his book “The Four Pivots: Reimagining Justice, Reimagining Ourselves.” Our January and March speakers from the Justice Leaders Collaborative will continue exploring building stronger relationships and engagement with students and staff with practical steps to support timely implementation. We are excited about the line-up of speakers this year and believe the learning will provide resources and opportunities to transform environments and cultures for students and staff. We hope you will join us and participate.
