December 2013

Week of December 2nd - The main hallway at Early Bird was transformed into a train tunnel. The students love walking along the train track and looking at the lights hanging down the hallway. The snowman conductor had his train fully stocked with presents.

All of the classes at EBLC decorated gingerbread houses to prepare for the arrival of their gingerbread men.

December 4th - The Early Bird staff and the admin office had a delicious soup and sandwich lunch from Mom's on Main.

December 6th-11th - "Ice Storm" break (much rest and relaxation had by staff, students, and parents)

December 12th - Pre-K students went on a hunt for their missing gingerbread man...and found him hanging from the screen in the classroom. Afterwards, they decorated gingerbread man cookies. Thank you to Mrs. Leah Friedrich for the delicious homemade gingerbread man cookies. They were YUMMY!

The Early Bird staff enjoyed their Christmas party and white elephant gift exchange at Babe's Chicken in Sanger.

December 16th- Students and staff adorned their most festive Christmas sweaters, sweatshirts, and/or t-shirts for the day.

December 17th - Students and staff wore their warmest winter hats to school. Who knew there were so many different styles? Some even had mittens attached to them.

December 18th - Santa Claus is coming to town! The students will be visiting with Santa Claus and getting their picture taken with him...all while wearing their pajamas for Polar Express day at EBLC. We will be enjoying hot chocolate and watching the movie Polar Express.

December 19th - It's Crazy Christmas sock day at EBLC. We can't wait to see what the students and staff will be wearing.

December 20th - Santa hat day! Students and staff are encouraged to wear a Santa hat to school on our last day before Christmas break.
