

COMMUNITY/STAFF INVOLVMENT

If anything separates BG&A from other search firms, it is the amount of opportunities for patrons and employees to provide input for the qualifications and characteristics necessary for the next superintendent of Crowley ISD to be successful.

BG&A provides the opportunity for all employees to meet with consultants and provide input. Typically, the firm would meet with the following groups:

Teachers and assistants

Elementary in groups of 2-4 campuses combined

Intermediate in groups of 2-4 campuses combined

Middle schools in groups of 1-2 combines

Each high school

Transportation employees

Maintenance employees

Food service employees

Central office administrators

Campus administrators

Athletics

Fine Arts

Others as deemed important to the district

The firm also traditionally meets with the following community groups:

City officials

College officials if appropriate

Ministerial alliances

Civic clubs

Booster clubs

Any other organizations deemed appropriate to the district
