Biographical Sketch:

Dr. Stephanie Biagetti possesses 25 years of higher education experience, 11 years of college administrative experience, and 7 years as an Associate Dean. In her latest administrative role at California State University Sacramento, she oversaw a broad portfolio encompassing academic policy, budgeting, program review, wrap-around student support services, curriculum development, and personnel management. Dr. Biagetti implemented programs that directly increased graduate program application numbers and improved graduate student engagement, retention, and completion, including the pathway programs into graduate education. She led university-wide efforts to align assessment of learning outcomes with accreditation expectations and facilitated the development of initiatives that produced measurable increases in enrollment, student engagement, and graduation rates.

Dr. Biagetti holds a Doctor of Philosophy in Urban Schooling (Assessment Curriculum and Teaching Studies), a Master of Education, and a Bachelor of Arts in Development Studies with a Minor emphasis in Mathematics, all from the University of California, Los Angeles.

In addition to Sacramento State, Dr. Biagetti has experience with the University of California, Davis; California State University, Fullerton; UCLA; the University of California Office of the President; and taught mathematics at Santa Monica (California) High School and Viewpoint School. She has served as a principal or co-principal investigator on numerous research projects and lead or co-lead on another 10 projects and initiatives. She is also an author or co-author of more than 25 peer-reviewed journal articles.
