Subject

2026 WISD A-F Accountability Ratings

Background Information

The Texas Education Agency (TEA) has released the 2026 A–F Accountability Ratings for districts and campuses. The A–F Accountability System evaluates student performance and progress through three domains: Student Achievement, School Progress, and Closing the Gaps. The 2026 accountability results provide important information regarding district and campus performance and will be used to inform district and campus improvement planning and instructional priorities.

The presentation will provide an overview of:

- District overall A–F rating
 - Please see separate attachment for campus ratings.
- Performance by accountability domain
 - Student Achievement
 - School Progress
 - Closing the Gaps
- Three-year accountability trends
- Comparison with similar districts
- Next steps for using accountability results to guide campus and district improvement
