ACTION

Background Information

The City of Levelland and Levelland Independent School District have historically worked together to provide School Resource Officer services to support the safety and security of students, staff, and visitors throughout Levelland ISD.

The proposed Interlocal Agreement establishes the terms and responsibilities for the City of Levelland Police Department to provide School Resource Officer services to Levelland ISD. The agreement outlines the scope of services, responsibilities of each party, and the financial arrangements associated with providing these services.

School Resource Officers serve an important role in maintaining safe learning environments while building positive relationships between law enforcement, students, staff, and the community.

Recommendation

Administration recommends approval of the Interlocal Agreement between the City of Levelland, Texas, and Levelland Independent School District for School Resource Officer Services.
