ACTION

Background Information

The Levelland ISD Board of Trustees currently conducts regular meetings according to its established meeting schedule on the third Wednesday of the month.

A Board member has requested that the Board consider changing the regular meeting day to the third Monday of the month.

Changing the regular meeting schedule would require the Board to establish the new schedule through Board action and ensure that all future meetings are posted in accordance with applicable law and Board policy.

Proposed Action

The Board of Trustees may consider establishing Monday as the regular meeting day for meetings of the Levelland ISD Board of Trustees, effective _____.

The Board may also establish the specific week of each month, meeting time, and any exceptions necessary to accommodate holidays, school events, or other circumstances.

Recommendation

Administration makes no recommendation. This item is presented for Board discussion and possible action.
