Principal's September Report — 2026–2027 School Year

Positive Start to the School Year

- The school year is off to a positive start for both the middle school and high school.
- Students and staff have settled into their routines, and beginning-of-the-year schedule adjustments have been completed.
- Overall, classrooms are running smoothly, and students are engaged in learning.

Lunch Schedule Update

- The split lunch schedule for middle and high school students is running smoothly.
- The Monday through Thursday schedule has created a more manageable lunch environment for students and staff.
- We will continue to monitor the schedule and make adjustments if needed.

Student Learning Opportunities

- Online courses through BYU, Accelerate Education, and Acellus are fully underway, expanding course offerings beyond the regular master schedule.
- Current enrollments include:
 - German – 2 students
 - Russian – 1 student
 - French – 4 students
 - Honors English
 - Credit recovery
 - Ornithology
- The proposed Horticulture curriculum is currently available for review as we prepare to expand agricultural learning opportunities for students.

Student Activities

- Fall athletics are underway with students representing our schools while participating in extracurricular activities.
- Peaceful Schools held its first meeting of the year with a strong turnout, and we look forward to the positive impact this student-led group will have on our school culture.
- FFA has pigs on campus once again as part of its annual fundraising project, providing students with valuable hands-on agricultural experience while supporting the program.

Assessment

- I-Ready diagnostic assessments have begun for students in grades 7–11.

Closing

- Overall, the school year is off to a strong start.
- Students have settled into their routines, programs are underway, and opportunities continue to grow for our middle and high school students.
- I appreciate the work of our staff in ensuring a smooth start to the school year and look forward to a successful year.
