Report	_____

Facts of this Matter:

We currently have three robotics fields, two of which sit on top of tables inside our robotics room and take up about 100 sq ft of space. The third field has to be propped up against our whiteboard when not in use and moved into the hallway and back every practice.

Objective POSITIVES related to this item or approach:

Not having the riser puts added wear and tear on the field, takes time, and is inconvenient.

Objective NEGATIVES related to this item or approach:

We have heard great things from other robotics teams that have mobile field risers, and we'd love to put our field on wheels to make it much more mobile.

Opinion/Recommendation:

We are requesting approval for this purchase.

Financial Implications, if any:

The item costs $750.00, and shipping is $220.95.

Total cost to the ZWMS Robotics ECA fund is $970.95

Folding IQ Riser

Mobile Folding IQ Field Riser, 18" Tall, 6'x8'

Reference: 72-93

Condition: New product

NEW Gen. 2 riser design! Improvements include:

- 67% less hardware for easier, faster assembly
- Improved strength

Whether you need to save space or set up an event, this mobile field riser for a VEX IQ Field folds up and rolls away easily. Roll it through doors, into a closet, or tuck it away when not in use. It takes just moments to fold up and down and the 18" height matches the elevated fields at VEX Worlds.

- Folded-up field fits through any standard door (minimum 80" tall, 28" wide)
- VEX IQ field stays securely attached even when folded up (fastened to the riser with screws into the underside)
- Store and transport field elements under the folded-up riser: Robosource Storage Trays or VEX Totes (sold separately) fit on the bottom
- 6 locking caster wheels roll smoothly
- VEX IQ Competition field, perimeter, and game not included

If you're looking for more storage space or folding desks next to your field, consider our 24" tall Classroom IQ Field Riser.
