About STORY Program

- The STORY Consortium is committed to empowering rural & small-town students – and the communities that support them – by preparing them for the college search and application process, with an aim of expanding access to higher education.
- The program features a 40-minute general admissions information session followed by an 80-minute college fair featuring highly selective research universities, flagship public institutions, and liberal arts colleges from around the country.

MUHS Counseling Dept & AVID Collaboration

- 46 AVID, AP/DE/Honors Students Attended - More than 80 students signed up
- Received generous donations to support transportation cost from the following colleges and universities to make this trip possible:

Case Western, Duke, Johns Hopkins, Princeton, Smith, Tulane University in collaboration with admission representatives at Harvard University

Expanding Opportunities for Our Students

- Support students pursuing highly selective colleges by helping them navigate the application process and highlight the unique strengths of their experiences in a small, rural community.
- Expand opportunities for Mingus by being identified as a potential future host site for the college fair.
- Build meaningful partnerships with highly selective colleges and admissions professionals from across the country.

Advancing Our Goals

- Supports MUHS Strategic Plan Focus Areas 1, 3, 4 and the Strategic Plan Vision: Engage Minds. Empower Students. Elevate Communities.
- Advances the AVID Mission at MUHS
- Strengthens Counseling Office Knowledge and practices for supporting students pursuing highly competitive colleges.

Thank you to our Transportation and Finance Departments, MUHS District Office, and Administrators for their partnership and support in making this meaningful experience possible for our students!
