Subject:	VII. COMMUNICATIONS A. RECOGNITIONS 2. All American Cheerleaders
Presenter or Contact Person:	Chief Communications Officer Kristen Escovedo
Policy/Code:	Not applicable.
Summary:	The UCA All-American designation is an individual honor awarded to cheerleaders who demonstrate superior technical skills, leadership, and performance during Universal Cheerleaders Association (UCA) camp. Eligible athletes participate in a competitive tryout process during summer cheer camp and are evaluated by UCA instructors and judges. Candidates must demonstrate a combination of cheer, dance, jump, stunt, and performance skills based on their designated tryout requirements. Earning the title of UCA All-American distinguishes a cheerleader as an outstanding performer among camp participants and provides additional opportunities including exclusive invitations to represent their schools and communities at special national and international performance events, including holiday parades, bowl game festivities, and other high-profile events. This recognition is an exceptional accomplishment for our Cedar Hill ISD scholars and reflects their talent, preparation, leadership, and commitment to excellence. Congratulations to these scholars and their coaches, Destiny Coleman and Sharonda Davis.
