

Trusted World MOU

Trusted World Network Partnership Agreement

This agreement is made between Terrell Independent School District and Trusted World Foundation Inc., a Texas nonprofit corporation (Trusted World) hereafter collectively, the Parties, effective on the date the last party signs.

Purpose

Trusted World's purpose is to help you help your client without you having to collect, store, inventory, and process clothing and food. All services are provided at no cost to our partners. Trusted World offers these services as a short-term solution to your client's situation. Due to the generosity of our food sponsor, each client (individual or family) may receive up to two food orders, with each order providing a week's supply of food. Clothing support is more flexible and may include a few unique orders to help clients get settled, search for work, or obtain appropriate attire for employment. Trusted World is not here to provide long-term solutions. If you need a long-term solution, please use our directory to find a partner specializing in your client's needs.

Cost and Continuation of Service

All services provided by Trusted World are offered at no cost to our partners. However, Trusted World reserves the right to discontinue services or terminate this agreement at any time, with or without cause, at our sole discretion.

Trusted World Will:

- Provide clothing, food, and toiletry resources for identified families and individuals.
- Provide login credentials for our Partner to access the online Partners Portal.
- Maintain confidentiality of people receiving resources.
- Maintain and upkeep background checks, badges, shirts, and Trusted World vehicles for our employees who interact with partners.
- Provide monthly reports when items are requested or delivered to our Partner.

Our Partner Agrees To:

- Maintain and secure the Partners Portal login information, limiting access to Partner staff only. This login is not to be shared with clients, other partners, or agencies.

- In the event that your organization publicly acknowledges its partners or supporting organizations (for example, on your website or other materials), Trusted World requests to be included in such acknowledgments.
- Acknowledge the partnership with Trusted World through social media platforms and, when possible, provide stories or examples demonstrating the impact of our collaboration.
- When applicable, collect and receive clothing, food, and toiletries on Trusted World's behalf.
- Ensure that any clothing or items provided by Trusted World are not collected and stored to be used in addition to Trusted World's services. This includes deconstruction of our bags or boxes, or use of items for purposes other than those agreed upon.
- Not utilize Trusted World to provide a GAP service if your organization maintains its own clothing closet. Trusted World's intent is to remove the need for a clothing closet; emergency clothes closets for immediate need are an exception.
- Our Partner agrees not to engage in clothing collection drives, donation bins, or other programs that collect clothing for the purpose of selling or monetizing those items—whether through resale to textile or recycling companies, thrift stores, or other resale operations—while also requesting resources from Trusted World. If your organization participates in such activities, Trusted World reserves the right to immediately discontinue the partnership.
- If at any time Trusted World determines that the terms of this agreement may have been violated, Trusted World reserves the right to suspend your access to our systems during an investigation.

All costs incurred as a result of this partnership shall be borne by the party incurring the cost.

Relationship of Parties

This Agreement creates no legal relationship of joint venturers, partners, or associates. Each party shall have the right to appoint, and will solely be responsible for, its own employees, agents, and representatives. Neither party has, nor will hold itself out as having, any right, power, or authority to create any contract or obligation on behalf of, or in the name of the other party, or to otherwise bind the other party unless specifically provided in this Agreement.

Confidentiality

For the purposes of this Agreement, "Confidential Information" means any information disclosed by one party to the other in connection with the performance of obligations under this Agreement. Each party shall maintain all Confidential Information in strict confidence, protecting such information with the same degree of care as it does its own Confidential Information, but in no event less than a reasonable degree of care. Confidential Information does not include information that is (a) already known to a party at the time of receipt; (b) publicly available; (c) rightfully obtained from a third party; (d) developed independently; or (e) disclosed under court order, provided reasonable notice is given. The obligation to maintain confidentiality shall survive expiration or termination of this Agreement.

Return of Confidential Information

All Confidential Information disclosed and all copies thereof remain the property of the disclosing party. Upon expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason, or within fifteen (15) days of written request, all such information and copies shall be promptly returned or destroyed, as requested, with certification of compliance within fifteen (15) days.

Force Majeure

None of the parties shall be liable to the other for any delay or failure to perform arising out of causes beyond its reasonable control, including but not limited to riots, epidemics, unusually severe weather, fire, floods, war, terrorism, embargoes, or labor disputes.

Modifications

No amendment or modification of this Agreement shall be valid unless in writing signed by both parties. This Agreement may be terminated by either party on thirty (30) days' written notice to the other party.

Entire Agreement and Waiver

This Agreement contains the entire agreement among the parties and supersedes all prior agreements relating to the subject matter herein. No waiver of any term or condition shall be binding unless executed in writing.
