Title:	Corporal Punishment and Prone Restraint
Adoption Date:
Revisited:	First Reading October 13, 2026

[NOTE: The provisions of this policy substantially reflect statutory requirements. The revisions in this model policy incorporate legislative changes enacted throughout the 2024 Minnesota legislative session. School boards may have adopted some revisions in the spring, when the first set of laws were enacted.]

I. Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to describe limitations on the use of corporal punishment and prone restraint upon a student.

II. General Statement of Policy

No employee or agent of St. Louis Park Public Schools shall inflict corporal punishment or use prone restraint upon a student except as provided below.

III. Definition

1. “Corporal punishment" means conduct involving:

   a. hitting or spanking a person with or without an object; or

   b. unreasonable physical force that causes bodily harm or substantial emotional harm.

2. “Employee or agent of St. Louis Park Public Schools” does not include a school resource officer as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 626.8482, subdivision 1, paragraph (c).

3. “Prone restraint” means placing a child in a face-down position.

IV. Prohibitions

1. An employee or agent of St. Louis Park Public Schools shall not inflict corporal punishment or cause corporal punishment to be inflicted upon a student to reform unacceptable conduct or as a penalty for unacceptable conduct.

2. An employee or agent of St. Louis Park Public Schools shall not use prone restraint.

3. An employee or agent of St. Louis Park Public Schools shall not inflict any form of physical holding that restricts or impairs a student’s ability to breathe; restricts or impairs a student’s ability to communicate distress; places pressure or weight on a student’s head, throat, neck, chest, lungs, sternum, diaphragm, back, or abdomen; or results in straddling a student’s torso.

4. Conduct that violates this Article is not a crime under Minnesota Statutes, section 645.241, but may be a crime under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 609 if the conduct violates a provision of Minnesota Statutes, chapter 609. Conduct that violates IV.1

above is not per se corporal punishment under the statute. Nothing in this Minnesota Statutes, section 121A.58 or 125A.0941 precludes the use of reasonable force under Minnesota Statutes, section 121A.582. The use of reasonable force as set forth in Section V does not authorize conduct prohibited pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 125A.0942.

V. Reasonable Force

1. Reasonable force may be used upon or toward the person of another without the other's consent when the following circumstance exists or the actor reasonably believes it to exist:

    a. when used by a teacher, school principal, school employee, school bus driver, or other agent of the school in the exercise of lawful authority, to restrain a child or student to prevent bodily harm or death to the child, student, or another.

2. Reasonable force may be used upon or toward the person of a child without the child's consent when the following circumstance exists or the actor reasonably believes it to exist.

    a. when used by a teacher, school principal, school employee, school bus driver, other agents of St. Louis Park Public Schools, or other member of the instructional, support, or supervisory staff of St. Louis Park Public Schools upon or toward a child or student when necessary to restrain the child or student to prevent bodily harm or death to the child, or student. Nothing in Minnesota Statutes, section 609.379 limits any other authorization to use reasonable force including but not limited to authorizations under Minnesota Statutes, section 121A.582, subdivision 1, and section 609.06, subdivision 1.

3. Actions prohibited in Section IV of this policy will not be considered reasonable force and are prohibited under any circumstance.

VI. Violation

Employees who violate the provisions of this policy shall be subject to disciplinary action as appropriate. Any such disciplinary action shall be made pursuant to and in accordance with applicable statutory authority, collective bargaining agreements, and St. Louis Park Public Schools policies. Violation of this policy may also result in civil or criminal liability for the employee.
