

Date of Board Meeting:

October 20, 2026

Recommendation:

Information item: Seek offers from the public for the sale of surplus or damaged property using an online auction.

Background and Rationale:

Wharton County Junior College plans to conduct an online public auction to dispose of surplus property that is no longer needed for college operations. Texas Government Code 2175.186 allows for the sale of surplus property by internet auction. The auction schedule, online platform, and list of items will be finalized and communicated as part of the auction process.
