Subject (What needs to be printed on the agenda): Annual Attorney Report on Collection of Delinquent Taxes
Executive Summary (Brief description of agenda item): Attorney Nicholas Goettsche will present to the Board the annual report on the collection of delinquent taxes. This report will primarily focus on the delinquent taxes related to the 2025 levy that were assigned to his firm in July 2026 and prior. Typically delinquent taxes referred to the attorney for collections represents only under 3% of the total tax levy. Ultimately the District recoups between 99-100% of the annual tax levy. Mr. Goettsche works for the company that has performed the service for the District a number of years and does an effective job. His fees are paid for by the delinquent tax payers, and not the District.
