Subject:

Consider Approval of the Local Improvement Plans for Federally Targeted Campuses

Background:

The Texas Education Agency requires the Board of Trustees to approve locally developed improvement plans that address student needs for campuses identified through federal accountability. 2026–2027 Local Improvement Plans (LIP) for Creekside Intermediate, federally identified for Targeted Support and Improvement, and North Pointe Elementary, federally identified for Additional Targeted Support, are presented for Board approval as required by the state. Each plan outlines targeted strategies, measurable goals, and progress monitoring to address identified student group performance gaps and strengthen student achievement and growth. Please the background documents for the LIPs
