Background Information: In anticipation of the opening of Grumbles Elementary, Scott Elementary, and Calvert Elementary, CISD has developed proposed adjustments to elementary attendance boundaries for the 2027-2028 school year. As a dynamic, fast-growth district, CISD continues to evaluate enrollment trends, neighborhood development, and campus capacity to plan for continued growth. At the October Board Meeting, the District will present the proposed boundaries for Board review before sharing them with the public for feedback. Following the public feedback process, the District will bring a final recommendation to the Board for consideration.
