Tobie,

Thank you for taking the time to listen to [redacted] and continuing to help her along the way. I also wanted to inform the school that there is a court order in place since Monday 4/20/26 that Kyle Caulfield is to have no contact with any of my children. He is not allowed in the same building as [redacted] until further notice from Judge Martinez. If there are any parent volunteer days or any other instance where Kyle may be near her I need to be informed. If needed I can provide the signed court order from the judge. Please let me know if there is anyone else I need to inform at Indian Grove.

Thank you,

Bryan Meeker

Dear Mr. Timmins,

I am writing to inform you of two active court orders issued by the Circuit Court of Cook County, Domestic Relations Division (Case No. 2017 D 5701, consolidated with 2025 OP 75267) that directly affect the custody and parenting time arrangements for my daughter, [redacted] who is enrolled at your school. I respectfully ask that this information be noted in [redacted] file and shared with any staff responsible for student pickup and dismissal.

Order 1 – January 21, 2026 (Judge Abbey Fishman Romanek)

Following an Emergency Petition, the Court found that the conduct of [redacted] father, Kyle Caulfield, seriously endangered the minor children's physical, mental, and emotional well-being. The Court entered the following orders, which remain in effect until further order of the Court:

- Kyle Caulfield is prohibited from having his girlfriend, Kelly Meeker, present during any of his parenting time (daytime or overnight).
- Both parties and their agents are prohibited from discussing any aspect of Kelly Meeker's pending litigation in the presence of the minor children.
- Both parties are prohibited from telling or encouraging the minor children to lie or keep secrets from the other parent or other adults.
- Both parties are prohibited from introducing the minor children to a new significant other until they have been dating for a period in excess of six (6) months.

Order 2 – April 24, 2026 (Judge Abbey Fishman Romanek)

Following a Second Emergency Petition, the Court entered the following orders on April 24, 2026:

- By agreement of the parties, Kyle Caulfield's parenting time with the minor children is suspended through May 1, 2026 at 5:00 p.m.
- The matter is set for further hearing on May 1, 2026 at 11:00 a.m., at which time the Court will determine next steps.

Additional Concern: Kelly Meeker as Substitute Teacher

I am also writing to raise a separate but related concern. It is my understanding that Kelly Meeker periodically serves as a substitute teacher at your school, including in [redacted] PE class and/or her classroom. Given the active court orders described above — specifically the Court's finding that Kyle Caulfield's conduct seriously endangered the minor children's well-being and the standing prohibition on Kelly Meeker's presence during his parenting time — I do not believe it is appropriate for Ms. Meeker to be placed in a supervisory or instructional role over [redacted] at school.

I respectfully request that the school ensure Kelly Meeker is not assigned as a substitute teacher in [redacted] classroom, PE class, or any other setting in which she would have direct contact with or supervisory responsibility over [redacted]. I recognize this may require coordination with your district's substitute placement process, and I am happy to provide whatever documentation would help facilitate that request.

Request for School Action

In light of the April 24, 2026 order, Kyle Caulfield does not have authorized parenting time through at least May 1, 2026 at 5:00 p.m. I respectfully request that your school take the following steps:

1. Kyle Caulfield should not be permitted to pick up [redacted] from school or check [redacted] out of the building during this period.
2. If Kyle Caulfield or any individual acting on his behalf attempts to pick up [redacted], please contact me immediately at [your phone number] and, if necessary, contact local law enforcement.
3. Please ensure that all front office and dismissal staff are made aware of this situation.

I have enclosed copies of both court orders for your records. Please do not hesitate to contact me with any questions.

Thank you for your attention to this matter and for your continued support of [redacted]

Dear Mr. Timmins,
No need to reply — I am writing to inform you of an updated court order regarding parenting time for my children, including my daughter [redacted], effective May 19, 2026.
Per the order entered by Judge Fishman-Romanek in Cook County Circuit Court, Kyle Caulfield's parenting time has been temporarily modified. Under this order:
• Kyle's parenting time does not begin until 4:00 PM on scheduled days
• Kyle is responsible for pickup and drop-off curbside at my residence — not at school
• Kyle does not have overnight parenting time under this schedule
This schedule is in effect through at least August 13, 2026, which covers the start of the upcoming school year. As such, Kyle should not be picking [redacted] up from school during this period. Please update the authorized pickup list to reflect that Kyle Caulfield is not authorized to pick [redacted] up from school at this time.
Additionally, the court order specifically states that Kyle Caulfield is not permitted to attend [redacted] with Kelly Meeker, nor is he permitted to arrive, be present during, or depart the graduation together with Kelly Meeker.
I have provided a copy of the court order for your records.
Thank you,

Bill,

I attached two orders. The one from judge Martinez states no contact. The one from Caulfield's judge says he can go with his mother if Kelly is not there. In short Judge Martinez signed on April 20th, 2026 has not changed the no contact order which prohibits Kyle from being in the presence of any of my children.

I am writing concerned that [redacted] has been told by Bryan Meeker that she is forbidden from attending her [redacted] if Kyle Caulfield is present.
For clarification, Kyle and I have separate court orders that permit us to attend the [redacted]
The only restriction is that Kyle and I are not to attend together. We both plan will attend separately, accompanied by our respective family members. There is no court order preventing either of us from attending the [redacted] independently.
I also want to make you aware that Bryan Meeker currently has a pending criminal battery charge arising from an incident involving Kyle Caulfield on [redacted] at the Glenview Ice Rink. I have attached documentation for your reference.
