Total gross household income is what you earn or can expect to earn in a year before taxes. Examples may include salary, wages, overtime or bonuses, interest, dividends, rental income or retirement benefits.

Alimony, child support or separate maintenance income need not be revealed if you do not wish to have it considered as a basis for repayment.

Atmos® Rewards Visa Signature® Business Card Your Application

Total gross household income may include nontaxable income such as disability or workers compensation, housing allowance, public assistance, Social Security or child support. If you include nontaxable income, increase that amount by 25%.

If you are 21 or older you may include income from others that you can reasonably access to pay your bill.
