G 350
Policy

Training of Non-Certificated Personnel

The board believes that within the time and resources available, training for non-certificated employees should be conducted in order to provide learning experiences that will help employees to perform more effectively in their present or future position assignments.

REPEAL

Board Adopted: July 14, 1980
Revised: March 11, 1996