Student Merit Scholars
Congratulations to Brazosport High School senior Matilda Lamb and Brazoswood High School seniors Peter Nguyen and Benjamin Albarran who have been named Commended Students in the 2027 National Merit Scholarship Program. They were recognized for their outstanding performance on the 2025 Preliminary SAT/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (PSAT/NMSQT), which serves as the initial screening for students who participate in the National Merit Scholarship Program.

Brazosport ISD Game Changer
The purpose of the Game Changer recognition is to celebrate staff members whose everyday actions make a meaningful difference for students, coworkers, campuses, and the community. Game Changers inspire others, strengthen relationships, step up when needed, and leave the people and places around them better because they were there.

National Principal Appreciation Month - October is once again proclaimed as National Principals Month to honor the contributions and the important role of elementary and secondary school leaders. Brazosport ISD is proud to recognize the importance of our principals and elementary and secondary administrators during Principals Month. Our principals are essential in making our schools great. We thank them for their hard work each day as school leaders and for all that they do to create a positive climate and culture for our students and staff. Thank you, BISD principals!
