Comet of the Week

CONSIDERATE
MOTIVATED
SAFE

INVOLVEMENT MATTERS

Activities give students opportunities to belong, contribute, and lead.

BELONGING

Relationships with peers and trusted adults

GROWTH

Practice, feedback, perseverance

CONTRIBUTION

Teamwork, service, leadership

RECOGNITION SHOULD MEAN SOMETHING

Recognition for positive behavior from various social systems is crucial in adolescent development. Specific actions, not simply participation are the focus.

“Great job!”	→	“You encouraged a new teammate.”
“Everyone gets an award.”	→	“You kept improving even without much playing time.”

CONSIDERATE • MOTIVATED • SAFE

Our school wide expectations become visible through student actions.

CONSIDERATE	→	Kindness • Sportsmanship • Supporting Others
MOTIVATED	→	Perseverance • Initiative • Improvement
SAFE	→	Belonging • Friendship • Teamwork

LOOKING AHEAD

KEEP IT PURPOSEFUL

Continue selecting for specific actions and character.

INVITE MORE VOICES

Encourage nominations across clubs, arts, academics, and athletics.

REVIEW AND REFINE

Monitor nomination variety and student/staff feedback.
