Instructional Materials:

"Instructional Materials" are the learning materials adopted by the board for use by educators in the teaching of District DESK Standards for specific grade levels and courses. This does not include material used in concurrent enrollment, advanced placement, or international baccalaureate programs or any other class with required material that is not subject to selection by the board. (4I-200 § 2.1).

Books/Novels:

The primary purpose of the Book Committee is to review books requested by classroom teachers for approval for whole-class instruction at particular levels throughout Davis District. Additional information is here under "Book Evaluation Committee and Approved Lists." Books were on the Open House agenda on October 21st and October 28th
