Early Childhood School students led the pledges at tonight's meeting.

6. Communication to and from the Board including Public Comments

6.A. Stakeholder Testimony

6.B. Public Testimony

- Mr. Jessen spoke asking about the Trained Appraiser System. He wanted to know if there was a place to find the grade each student should be in verses the grade, they are currently in.

7. Board Report

- Ms. Davis said hello to our Leadership Frisco Class that was in the audience tonight. She welcomed them and thanked them along with shared they are a part of a yearlong program, and this is just one of their many stops. She sees so many familiar faces and some new friends that get to learn more about the district.

- Mr. Manduva said it was good to see Frisco Leadership in the audience along with two former trustees. Mr. Manduva shared it has been a busy end of September and beginning of October. Mr. Manduva attended the Marching Band Showcase, which is a presentation of all the high school, which is great to see them all in one place. He also attended the Frisco Community Awareness Night, and they traveled to multiple neighborhoods with Police, Fire, and City Council members. He shared it was nice to see great participation from community members and students in the District Advisory Council Kick Off. He also attended the Realtor Breakfast, Superintendent Student Advisory Council Meeting and Frisco Insight Meet and Greet Night. Lastly the Board and Dr. Fouche attended TXEDCON Conference with over 1250 school districts and trustees and superintendents in the state. He shared it was a lot of material.
- Mrs. Sample shared that its Principal Appreciation month and thanked all the principals that were in attendance for their long days and commitment to Frisco ISD, the staff and the students. She cannot imagine your job. Mrs. Sample also shared that she went to the Marching Band performance and said it is amazing to see all the work that is being done with the band students and the parents with amazing choreography and it's so creative. She shared she had the opportunity to attend the Frisco Chamber Leadership trip with Trustee Wamhoff and that it was a great few days packed with information along with learning about the benefits of outdoor learning and how their students interact with the Chamber. She would like to bring that to Frisco. Mrs. Sample shared that she attended the TXEDCON Conference and how it really expanded on the 89th Legislature and dug deep into some of the changes that are happening. Lastly one of her favorites is the Superintendent Student Advisory Council meeting she attended. She enjoys meeting the students and hearing their voices. They are honest and have great concerns but also solutions and she enjoys hearing from them.

- Mrs. Elad shared that she is chairing the communications subcommittee this year and how they had a meeting recently. She shared that she is excited that we have a new Chief Communications Officer that joined the district this year. Mrs. Lyons has a lot of great ideas on how we can make communications even better in Frisco ISD. A couple things they are looking at is how the Board communicates with the community after a Boad meeting and other things that happen in the district. She will have more of an update after their November meeting. She also shared that the Marching Band Showcase was a great event and we have done a great job of inviting our local elected representatives to participate in our district specifically around doing the coin toss at our varsity football games. Ms. Elad was the honorary captain and did the coin toss at Centennials Homecoming game along with representative Shaheen.

- Mrs. Wamhoff shared it has been a busy couple of months. She attended the 10th Annual Frisco ISD Marching Band Showcase recently and she is proud of all the talented students and incredibly grateful for the band directors, staff and families that have poured so much time and energy into the program. She attended the Frisco Community Awareness Night with a couple of fellow trustees hosted by the Frisco PD, and she shared how she loves getting out and connecting with the community and neighbors and having great conversations. Mrs. Wamhoff attended the Gold Star Sunset Ceremony hosted by the Blue Star Mothers of America, Yellow Chapter 20. She is forever grateful for their service and sacrifice in their families who will carry their legacy forward. She attended the Frisco Leadership Exchange trip with Trustee Sample in Michigan. She shared it was a special way to step outside of our community and see what other cities are doing as well as bringing some of those ideas back home. She enjoyed learning about leadership, the arts, the outdoor learning, community connections, and many partnerships that can make a difference. She thanked the Frisco Chamber for making this event possible. She attended the TXEDCON conference as well where she spent time learning and connecting with other neighboring communities. Mrs. Wamhoff also attended the Frisco Mayors 5th Annual Prayer Breakfast, and she is thankful for a community that values faith, service, and supporting one another. She visited two campuses this week, Sparks Elementary and Reddy High School. She thanked the principals and staff for their commitment and hard work. She attended the Superintendent Student Advisory Council meeting, and it was great to get feedback from the students along with hearing what is important to them and what they care about. Lastly, she said Happy Principals month and welcomed the Frisco Leadership class to the meeting.

- Ms. Davis mentioned that one of our staff members, Dr. Jackson, is part of Leadership Frisco. She also mentioned at the TXEDCON conference during the delegate assembly, she was elected for another term on the Board of Directors for TASB and she is honored to represent Frisco ISD in that capacity.

- Mrs. Salas shared it was a busy month along with that she is a proud graduate of Frisco ISD's Insight program. It was one of her favorite programs. She shared it's a great way to get behind the scenes look at how Frisco ISD is run and how amazing we are. Mrs. Salas and Mrs. Sample attended the ISM Symposium. She shared it's a great program for students to practice resumes and their communication skills. They have the event every year and always need volunteers along with she enlisted her husband up to do interviews with students. She attended White Cane's Day with Dr. Fouche, and it was a new event for her. It's a program that brings awareness to students who are deaf, blind, or have low vision. Mrs. Salas also attended UIL Regional Tennis where she watched Centennial High School and Frisco High School battle it out. She said these students play like professionals, and it is a great thing to watch. She had the opportunity to be the honorary captain and toss the coin at the Wakeland football game. Lastly our bands went to UIL Regionals and left it all on the field. She shared you know when a Frisco ISD band takes the field and how hard the students work.

- Mr. Maddox shred October is Principal Appreciation month. He gave a shout out to all the principals for their hard work along with thanking them and wanting them to know how much he appreciated them. Mr. Maddox thanked the staff that gave him and Dr. Cunningham a road tour. They visited Shawnee Trail, Robertson, Bright Academy, Gunstream, Wester, Rogers, Curtsinger, Norris, and the Early Childhood School. He thanks all the staff at each campus for their hard work and patience along with showing them around. He shared there are so many great things happening in Frisco ISD.
