DISTRICT 68 HIGHLIGHTS
Woodridge School District 68's Preschool for All program has again earned the Gold Circle of Quality, ExceleRate Illinois's highest rating for early learning programs. All three locations (Edgewood, Goodrich and Sipley) received the honor, based on recent Early Childhood Environmental Rating Scale scores and Compliance Checklist results.

Artwork by Sipley students in grades 1-4 is on display at Woodridge Public Library through November 20.

Members of the Class of 1980, Sipley's first K-6 graduating class, recently returned for a Saturday tour with Principal Dr. Don Mrozik. They shared memories, learned about life for today's Sipley Huskies, and later gathered for a class reunion that evening.

DI: 26-45 Discussion on 2026 IASB Resolutions

Board members reviewed the 2026 resolutions and will vote on recommendations for the November 2026 Joint Annual Conference at the November 16, 2026 board meeting. Lori Barbert will serve as the IASB delegate to the conference, with Robert Lathrop as the alternate.

DI: 26-46 Discussion on the Annual Solar Performance Report (for Phase I, Year 2)

Mr. Saindon presented the measured savings received from PSI. Although production was slightly below projection, savings exceeded projections because the market value of electricity per kWh was higher.

DI: 26-47 Discussion on Technology Refresh for Non-E-Rate Purchases

Mr. Saindon discussed the 2028 technology purchases. He will present his recommendations for approval at the November 16, 2026 board meeting.

DI: 26-48 Discussion on Preliminary EAV and New Construction

Mr. Saindon updated the board on the preliminary EAV and new construction. As more information is available from the Lisle Township Assessor's Office, he will update the board. Mr. Saindon also requested to return to the November 16, 2026, meeting to request approval for a pre-audit adjustment required by Lauterbach & Amen.

DI: 26-49 Discussion on Illinois School Maintenance Grant

Mr. Saindon will request the board's approval to finalize and submit the grant application in November.

DI: 26-50 Discussion on Health, Life and Safety Building Inspection Results
Mr. Saindon presented the DuPage ROE building inspection results. We are currently in full compliance after responding to a few minor violations.
