Elementary Music Teachers

Submitted by: Charles Klapp, Ximena Valenzuela, Chanel Antoshin

Sara Wright, Sara Cooper, Robyn Kimmel, and Christina Alexander are outstanding music teachers deserving of recognition. They do an incredible job building meaningful connections with students, taking the time to know each child on a personal level and creating a welcoming, engaging space where every student can experience the joy of music. Their work goes beyond teaching musical skills; they are fostering a lifelong appreciation for music and inspiring the next generation of lifelong music learners. They are amazing colleagues.

Congratulations on demonstrating these Portrait of a Teacher Traits:

Collaborative Leader, Lifelong Learner, Dedicated Professional
