Elections

Congratulations to our returning school board members on their election wins Nancy Snyder, Jeff Michel, and Carl Schollmeier.

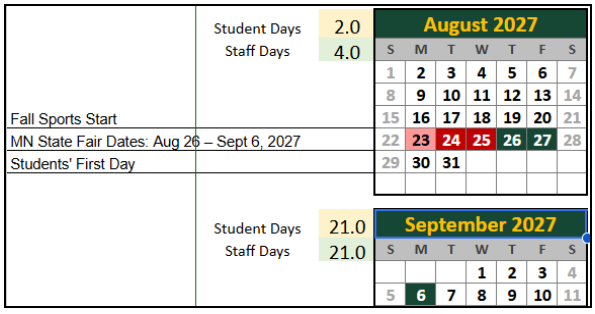

Statewide there was a mix of school election results with rural schools seeing a much lower rate or approval than the metro schools.

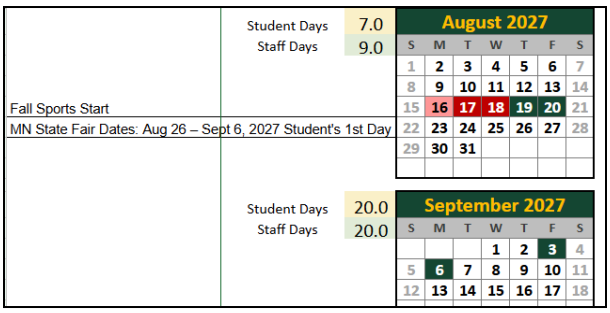

Here is an MPR article on the election: Minnesota voters shied away from tax hikes to fund schools, backed school board incumbents

From MREA Executive Director, Aaron Fischer"....the results of local school funding questions tell a much more challenging story. With just 35% of questions passing statewide and only 28% passing in rural districts, it was a difficult election for schools seeking additional resources." The table below illustrates the challenges that we as rural schools have, compared to the metro districts. The metro districts can spread the tax impact over many more people and businesses.

Calendar

The meet and confer committee (and calendar sub-committee) has reviewed drafts of multiple calendars. Two of the drafts that were discussed would have a student start before September 1st. Starting before the 1st would require three public meetings and an application to the state. As of Friday morning, this application has not been released yet.

Fall Play: The True Adventures of Pinocchio

The students and director did a great job with the fall play. This was the first play where we have offered online and digital tickets. Below is the breakdown of how people paid to attend the play. All fees for online/card payments were paid by the "customer."

Type	# of tickets	Dollar amount
Cash		$3,755
Online Ticket Sales	82	$ 710
Card at the Door	12	$ 90

The plan going forward is to offer online and cash-based payments at events and concession stands.

Permanent School Fund

This constitutional amendment passed with over 73% of the vote. You can read a KSTP article about it here and read the MSBA press release here. What this means financially for R-P is listed below (Estimate).

Students	2025 Distribution	Increased Distribution (Estimate)	Difference
631	$43,040.38	$63,875.26	$20,834.88
