

Purpose: E-rate processes

1. We have submitted E-rate 470 RFP to get bids on Network Equipment for the New Middle School. Bids will be due in December and should be reporting back in January.
2. I have replaced a lot of switches for the network across the district. My crew is going to do an analysis and get a count of switches and AP still needed to finish a complete network refresh across the district. Once we have a list of needs we will pursue another E-rate 470 RFP for funding.

Teaching & Learning School Board Update for November 13, 2025

Early Literacy Tutoring

The After School Literacy Tutoring program is officially up and running across all four elementary schools! This session marks an exciting expansion, now serving not only our K-3 rising readers, but also 4th and 5th-grade students needing additional literacy support. A total of 40 students are currently engaged in high-dosage tutoring, receiving personalized instruction from 13 trained tutors. Students meet twice a week for ten weeks for one-on-one or small-group (three students or less) sessions, with regular progress monitoring ensuring effective growth.

Inservice Update

Earlier this week on our district inservice day, K-12 teachers and administrators participated in a history and curriculum professional development session presented by The Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde. This event reaffirmed our strong ongoing partnership. Educators utilized this time to also explore the Confederated Tribes' custom-created lessons, ask clarifying questions, and review the range of support and resources the Tribe offers.

Outdoor School

Last week, 140 Sixth Grade Students attended Outdoor School at one of two camps to accommodate all of the students: Camp Cedar Ridge (Veronica) or Camp Arrah Wanna (Welch's). Each group spent three nights. High school students were recruited and trained to be the camp counselors. Accompanying them were Principal Dalton, Associate Principal Tatum, sixth grade staff and several High School Student Camp Counselors.
