

Agenda Item C - Curriculum Spotlight

Mineola High School – Mobile Application Development Class

The Mobile Application Development class will foster students' creativity and innovation by presenting opportunities to design, implement, and deliver meaningful projects by creating mobile applications. Students use writing, images and videos in their mobile applications. These apps focus on communicating, informing, sharing and/or entertaining.